1. Call to Order--9:02
2. New Business
   o Changes to the Constitution have been voted on and passed by Student Assembly.
     ▪ Section 1. The Judicial Board Constitution
       ▪ Composition of the Judicial Board:
         ▪ The application process for J-board members will no longer require a general election, instead members will be appointed by the board and put through a conformation process.
         ▪ There will also be a new 2-term limit with the exception of the chair who will be able to serve three terms.
         ▪ The J-Board will consist of 3 Seniors, 3 Juniors and 3 Sophomores.
       ▪ Judicial Board Hearing Procedures:
         ▪ "Once a complaint has been filed, a request by a student respondent to withdraw temporarily or permanently from the College will not be approved until the hearing processes have concluded."
       ▪ Sanctions
         ▪ If you receive 6-9 Judicial Points you will lose your status in the housing lottery.
     ▪ Section 2. The Honor Court Constitution
       ▪ Composition
         ▪ Identical changes are made to the Honor Court elections and term requirements that were made to the J-Board.
         ▪ Honor court consists of 2 seniors, 2 juniors, 2 sophomores and one first-year
       ▪ Procedures
         ▪ Failure to submit the written response to the complaint may result, at the discretion of the Honor Court, in a delay of the hearing of up to one week
     ▪ Section 3: Appeals Board Constitution
       ▪ Composition
         ▪ Regarding honor court violations, students who are dependents of their children will be required to notify parents
         ▪ Harassment and Sexual Misconduct Board (HSMB) language has been added, which includes two parties, a respondent and complainant, in the hearing.
         ▪ Additional slight changes to the wording of the constitution were made in order to update and clarify the document without altering the meaning.
3. Committee Reports
   o Social Traditions
