VILLAGE DADDY

(VILLAGE TAVERN) This week saw the announcement of a new attraction down at Village Tavern. Starting May 11th, Deved Weppmen and an all-star lineup of administrative workers I'd get in trouble for listing will begin a three week series of live music performances with their Village People tribute band: Township Folk. When asked about how he thinks the performances will go, Divid said, "I'm just excited to finally have a chance to wear the matching beret and assless biking chaps, both made from a humane leather substitute, of course. Actual leather would chaff too much."

Slayer daddy

(STEPHANIE MEYER'S NIGHTMARES) Hamilton students were shocked last Monday, when President Dovod Woppmon confirmed allegations that he works as a semi-professional vampire slayer during the night. "We really should have seen it coming," commented soon-to-be-former Dean of Students Nancy Thompson, "We've been wondering for quite some time why he always carries a collapsible wooden stake in his back pocket. We had just always figured it was some odd tradition from his days at Minnesota Law." There is no information yet on what happened to the bodies of the suckers Wuppmun has caught so far.

DADDY AND FRIENDS

(IN A MAKE-SHIFT BUNKER IN THE G-ROAD DITCH) Dyvyd Wyppmyn is welcoming his old buddies from his days in Vietnam to campus this weekend, to help celebrate his first Class and Charter day in style. The group features Ray "Copper" Simpson, Felipe "Native" Rose, Alex "The GI" Briley, Eric "Biker Boy" Anzalone, Bill "The Worker" Whitefield, and Jim "Cowboy" Newman. When asked for what to expect at class and charter day from his old troupe, D_v_d W_ppm_n said "When the boys get together, it's always a wet and wild time." He was cut off from further comment by Biker Boy yelling "Yo Daddy Whips, get over here and get rowdy with us!"

Rating the Texture of Bookstore Clothing:

- Blue Hamilton Hoodie with Buff text:
A lil scratchy, but classic. Not particularly soft. However, due to its popularity and the fact that I'm a darksider, I have to give this a 1 out of 10.
- White and blue Women's Hamilton t-shirt:
Very soft. Nice, light feel. A little thin. 7 out of 10.
- Hamilton Under Armour running pants:
Not very breathable. Soft texture, but feels very synthetic. 4 out of 10
- Jared the Counter Worker's hair:
Very soft. Very luscious. Long enough to be used as a scarf. Smells of basement death metal shows. 12 out of 10.
- Avocados:
Not sold in store. I am severely disappointed. 0 out of 10.
