STUDENT SCUTTLING ACROSS MINOR FIELD LIKE A CRAB DRAWS HUGE CROWDS ON C&C DAY

Move over Charli XCX, the new queen of C&C has just arrived! There is a student scuttling across minor field like a crab, and she is on a mission. Look at her go! It's truly amazing to see someone so accurately mimic the movements of America's most beloved crustacean. The entirety of the student body showed up to watch her. What's that?

A team from NBC news is here and wants to do a full story on her. There isn't a single dry eye in the audience after she crab walked over the 50 yard line. Hamilton college hasn't seen a spectacle of this magnitude since Jeff invited everyone over to his dorm to watch Jesus Christ Superstar Live. We don't know why she started doing this, but we hope she doesn't stop any time soon #feminism.

THREE MINUTE THESIS: WHY JACK JOHNSON IS A PEDOPHILE

- Sings like the kind of person who'd sell Corona to preteens down by the boardwalk
- 85% of his songs are just him breathing into the mic, probably because he's out of breath from chasing kids
- Enjoys banana pancakes, and fucking children
- Recently purchased a school bus and insisted on shrink-wrapped seats
- Has a tattoo on his back that says "Hey you! The Kids, i do like them!"
- Has probably said "sandy little holes" at least twice
- You ever seen a pic of him? Looks like a hairy egg. Totally looks like a guy who'd hang around playgrounds with a bucket full of ring pops dipped in Valium.

Can satire be slander?

Defamation is a believable false statement of fact that causes material harm. Satire is "the use of humor, irony, exaggeration, or ridicule to expose and criticize people's stupidity or vices, particularly in the context of contemporary politics and other topical issues." Jan 13, 2014
